

HERE IS PROOF THAT THE N.A.A.C.P. . . .

Despite the fact that it is one of the most widely publicized, and one of the most bitterly criticized, organizations in America today, relatively few Americans are familiar with the name or face of the sinister figure who masterminds the so-called National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). He is Albert B. Spingarn (left), president of the NAACP since 1939—and he is not a Negro but a New York Jew. Yet our newspapers never print his name or picture: instead, Negro “fronts” (such as Roy Wilkins and Thurgood Marshall) are always pictured as the leaders of the organization . . . Thus does our venal commercial press give aid and comfort to the NAACP and its alien leaders . . .
